The Elder Ed Players Present

Points of Life

Connecting Families Across Generations

A Collaborative of Professionals and Specialists in Serving the Needs of a Changing Society

What to do when life happens or Reality does not have to bite!

Life is not a problem to be solved but an adventure to be lived!

In these funny and informative vignettes, Points of Life, LLC and the Elder Ed Players discuss the complexities of a changing society. Our Expert Panelists will then address legal issues, financial matters, care, cost of care, family communication, family life planning and many other issues.
